Deutsche Beteiligungs AG: Supervisory Board extends Susanne Zeidler's appointment CFO until end of October 2020

Frankfurt am Main, 14 January 2015. In its meeting yesterday, the Supervisory Board of Deutsche Beteiligungs AG (DBAG) reappointed Susanne Zeidler, a member of DBAG's Board of Management, for a term of five years with effect from 1 November 2015.

Susanne Zeidler (53) joined the DBAG Board of Management on 1 November 2012. In her role as Chief Financial Officer since March 2013, she has been in charge of Finance and Accounting and other central functions and is, among other things, also responsible for Investor Relations (stock market), Investment Controlling and Risk Management.

"I am delighted that Ms Zeidler has accepted her reappointment and that she will continue to bring her expertise, communication skills and leadership quality to Deutsche Beteiligungs AG," said Andrew Richards, Chairman of DBAG's Supervisory Board, commenting on the reappointment.

Deutsche Beteiligungs AG, a listed private equity company, raises closedend private equity funds and invests alongside the DBAG funds in wellpositioned mid-sized companies with potential for development. DBAG focuses on industrial sectors in which Germany's 'Mittelstand' is particularly strong on an international comparison. With its experience, expertise and equity, DBAG supports its portfolio companies in implementing corporate strategies that sustainably create value. Its entrepreneurial approach to investing has made DBAG a sought-after investment partner in the German-speaking world. Total assets managed and advised by DBAG amount to approximately 1.3 billion euros.
